First Rural Life School Held In South Opened On Sunday, June 7th

At St. Stanislaus—Under Auspices of National Catholic Rural Life Conference—Twelve Diocese and Five Religious Orders Represented

The first Rural Life School to be held in the South opened at St. Stanislaus under the auspices of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference on Sunday evening, June 7, with some sixty priests in attendance, representing twelve dioceses and five religious orders. A number of laymen also attended the entire session. Enthusiastic response was met with from the hierarchy. The Most Rev. R. O. Gerow, Bishop of Natchez and host bishop to the rural life school extended a hearty welcome to the priests and contributed to the program by giving a stimulating talk on the problems of the rural parish.

The Most Rev. J. B. Jeanmar, Bishop of Lafayette, attended for two days and gave a report on progress which is being made in religious opportunities for colored people. Bishop Jeanmar's report was followed by an inspiring address by Rev. Edward Murphy, S. S. J., well known professor at Xavier College, New Orleans, and this talk gave rise to a stimulating discussion in which some of the colored Fathers from St. Augustine's Seminary contributed brilliant suggestions as to ways and means of creating a better understanding between white and colored people. The Most Rev. Albert Fletcher, auxiliary bishop of Little Rock, attended the conference for one day and gave an informal talk expressing his interest and devotion to the rural life movement.

The program of the first rural life school of the South had been planned and directed by Rev. Hubert Lersch, of Rayne, La., and he has succeeded in bringing to Bay St. Louis a collection of talent on agricultural matters which would be hard to surpass. Since thought must precede action, Messrs. L. G. Ligutti, National Secretary of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference led off with a talk on the aims and ideals of the Conference. With his talk to give direction to the discussion, Miss Mary Mims of the Extension Dept., Louisiana State University, told how dormant communities can be brought back to life if given proper leadership. The spiritual aspects of such a program was presented by Rev. J. Carey, Director of Fraternity of Christian Doctrine, Diocese of Natchez. Mr. Howard Jones, Division of Program Study of the Dept. of Agriculture, described how discussion groups can aid in social revival, while Abbot Columban Thuis, O. S. B., Abbot of St. Joseph's Abbey, Louisiana, brilliantly outlined the place of Christian worship in a rural life movement.

The second day found the conference discussing the problems of the farmer under the leadership of Messrs. L. G. Ligutti and a number of experts from agricultural colleges of the South. Problems and disadvantages of the South were discussed by Prof. H. C. Hoffmeyer, and Dr. J. L. Lee, of Louisiana State University, and by Mr. Frank Welch, of Mississippi State College. The climax of the day was reached in the two-hour lecture of Dr. Walter Lowdermilk, soil conservation expert of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. Dr. Lowdermilk gave an illustrated lecture showing the importance of soil use and abuse in the history of man.

The discussion of problems on Tuesday left the priests with a feeling of pessimism, but since Wednesday was devoted to solutions thru cooperation of people among themselves and with government agencies, the clouds of gloom began to disappear. Mr. Charles Eickel, field representative of the Credit Union National Assn., and E. K. Watkins, Managing Director of the Louisiana Credit Union League explained the social value of the credit union, while Dr. Luther Sharp, representative of the Agricultural Trade Relations Inc., Dallas, Texas, led several brilliant discussions on the possibilities of cooperatives as instruments by which low income people can learn to help themselves.

FLAG DAY PROCLAMATION June 14, 1942

On January 1, 1942, twenty-six Governments signed the Declaration of the United Nations. They pledged support to the principles of the United Nations Charter of International Freedom. They pledged their full resources—military and economic—against those Axis nations with which they were at war. They pledged never to sign a separate armistice or peace with the enemy.

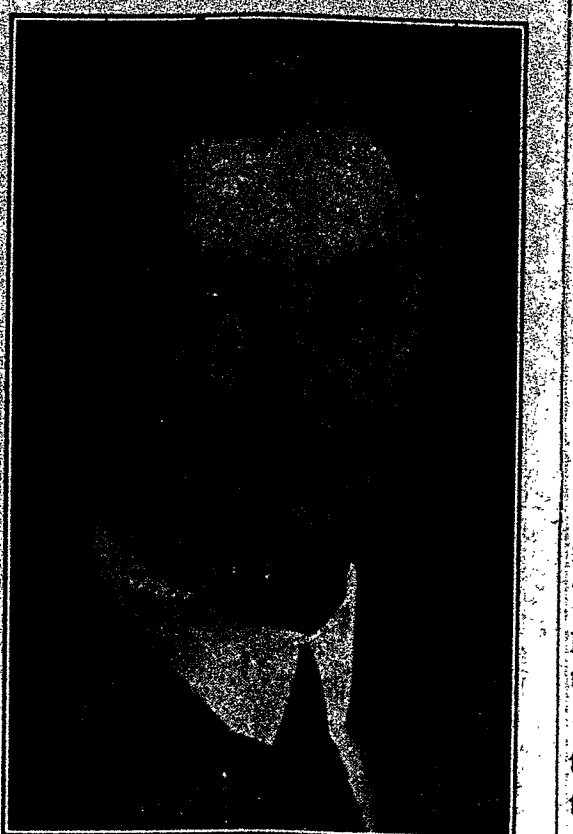

Each year, on June 14, the people of this community have observed Flag Day as a symbol of our allegiance to the ideals of our country. But, in this year of all-out war against tyranny, our allegiance is entwined with loyalty to all who battle alongside us, wherever they may be. As we have united in the past to build a mighty America out of pioneers who came here from many lands, so today we join with United Nations on every continent to fight for the age-old human ideal of freedom. We may differ with many of our allies in language or religion, or form of government, but we are united on a basic principle now challenged by Axis aggressors. It is the principle that human beings have a right to be free; that they have a right to decide for themselves what kind of government they wish; that they have the inalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

To pay tribute to the unquenchable determination of the twenty-six United Nations to give the citizens of this community an opportunity to express their conviction that the spirit of freedom will never die and that our cause will be victorious, to express our confidence in the sincerity, the gallantry and the mutual respect of the United Nations wherever they are now on the battle-lines, whether their lands are temporarily under the heels of Axis tyranny, or whether they serve by supplying the vital materials of war.

As Mayor of Bay St. Louis, I hereby proclaim June 14, 1942, Flag Day and I ask all citizens to cooperate with the Flag Day Committee in carrying out a fitting observance of this day. I ask the people of Bay St. Louis to display the flag of the United States from their residences and business places as well as the flags of other United Nations which may be in their possession. I ask for full participation in all ceremonies which may be held in this community so that the world will know that Americans stand shoulder to shoulder with our allies in the undying determination to fight until victory is ours.

(Signed)
G. Y. BLAIZE
Mayor of City of Bay St. Louis, Miss.

AUTO USE TAX STAMP MUST BE

Purchased Prior To July 1st,
1942; On Sale at Postoffice

Collector of Internal Revenue Eugene Fly announced today that auto use tax stamps in the denomination of $5.00 will be placed on sale in all postoffices and office of Collectors of Internal Revenue on Wednesday, June 10. The stamps will evidence payment of the tax for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1942, and must be purchased on or before that date. The stamps will be serially numbered, will be gummed on the face, and will have provision on the back for entry of the make, model, serial number and State license number of the vehicle.

The Collector said he had been advised by the Office of Price Administration that, in the issuance and use of gasoline rationing books, an important identification will be the serial number printed on the use tax stamp. In those areas where gasoline is being rationed and in those areas where gasoline will be rationed, possession of the stamp evidencing payment of the use tax on motor vehicles will provide one of the necessary means of identifying the coupon book with the vehicle in the securing of gasoline.

Mr. Fly said that, to guard against loss or theft, it has been suggested that, when affixing the stamps, the vehicle owner should dampen the windshield rather than the adhesive side of the stamp. This method has been recommended to keep the stamp intact upon the windshield. As an additional precaution it has also been suggested that each motor vehicle owner should make a record of the serial number which appears on the use tax stamp in order that there may be some means of identification in connection with gasoline rationing in the event the stamp should become lost.

Every owner of a motor vehicle which is used upon the highways should call at his local postoffice or at the office of Internal Revenue Collector and secure a $5.00 use tax stamp and affix it to his vehicle on or before July 1, 1942. The Collector said. The various postoffices will sell the stamps over the counter for cash only and no mail order business with respect thereto will be conducted by the postoffices. Collectors of Internal Revenue are authorized to accept cash, postoffice money orders, and certified checks in payment of the use tax stamp. However, as revenue stamps have an intrinsic value, uncanceled checks will not be acceptable in payment thereof.

WAR BOND PLEDGE DRIVE

To Begin June Sixteenth—
$24,200 Hancock County
Quota for Month of June

Uncle Sam will start "calling the roll" of patriotic Americans as the War Savings Victory pledge campaign opens in Hancock County and throughout Mississippi next Tuesday (June 16) when representatives of the Treasury Department will seek to contact every person in the county who has an income and get his name "on the dotted line" for regular investment in War Savings Bonds and Stamps.

The securing of voluntary pledges is part of a gigantic War Savings Census which will be conducted all over the nation to enable the Treasury to tell in advance how much money it can expect to borrow on any given date and where it is coming from.

Hancock County's quota is $24,200.00 for June.

Stressing the fact that pledges are entirely voluntary, Mr. Forster Comptroller, Hancock County War Savings Chairman, who will head the campaign here, has emphasized the fact that "no one is asked to give anything. The pledge is purely a patriotic gesture and the money you are actually a loan that will return an excellent rate of interest."

He points out that the State War Savings Committee has expressed confidence that Hancock County will cooperate in every way to make the pledge campaign a success.

"We are anxious," he said, "that this county and the whole State make a generous and patriotic response."

The objective of the pledge campaign is to stimulate the sale of War Bonds and Stamps. Beginning in July, the Treasury has set a goal of "a billion a month" for the whole nation. This figure requires that an average of 10 percent of every person's income be invested in the government through investment in War Savings Bonds and Stamps.

In many instances, it is pointed out, people simply cannot afford to meet this quota, but they are asked to pledge what they can. In other cases the pledges will exceed the 10 percent and thereby bring the average amount up to the required level.

"The important thing," stated Mr. Comptroller "is that everyone sign a pledge regardless of how much or how little he has to invest."

Flag Day Celebration At Our Lady of the Gulf Church Postponed

Plans had been made for the celebration of Flag Day at the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf, where two flags were to be blessed and to remain on the altar of the Church; one, the flag of the United States and the other, the flag of the Gulf States, and elaborate plans had been formulated for the blessing of the flags and for the procession.

This program has been called off, for the reason that the delivery of the flags could not be made in time. It will be held as soon as the flags are delivered by the manufacturer. Due notice will be given as to the time of the holding of this program.

AMERICAN RED CROSS ORIGINATES

Services of Broadcast From Australia of Boys in Service to Their Families

The local office of the American Red Cross advises that the American Red Cross, with the cooperation of the Mutual Broadcasting System and the Australian Broadcasting Commission, has originated a daily series of radio programs of personal messages from American troops in Australia to their families in the United States. These programs are broadcast by Mutual daily from 11:15 to 11:30 A. M. Eastern War Time, and some stations, unable to carry the programs at that time, make transcriptions to be broadcast at a later period during the day.

National Red Cross Headquarters makes individual phonograph records of each message and sends them to the local Red Cross Chapter in the soldier's home, with the request that the Chapter deliver record to the person to whom it is addressed, and, if necessary, provide a portable phonograph so that the message can be played when it is delivered.

Since the programs are sent by short wave from Australia there will be times when the names and addresses of the soldiers are indistinct, and the Red Cross Chapter will try to locate the persons involved.

This service is a part of the Red Cross Congressional Charter authorizations to serve as the official link between soldiers and their families. Of course, no charge is to be made for this service.

OUR FLAG

IN the Flag of every country is woven the story of the nation's development, the bravery of its sons and daughters when its land was menaced, the tears, the hopes, the fears of all men and women who see in their Flag, security for their children and the promises of tranquility.

The Flag has an interesting origin. It comes from the Anglo-Saxon "flegan," meaning to float, or fly in the wind. Flags are always thought of primarily as the symbols of nations.

The Flag, as it is known today, is the result of many centuries of development. In the dawn of civilization man felt the need for some token that would distinguish family from family, and tribe from tribe, and from these ancient symbols came the standards which were emblematic of nations.

The story of the national emblem of the American people begins with the stormy days of the Revolutionary War. During the first few months of this struggle several different local flags were carried by the soldiers. After the adoption of the Declaration of Independence in 1776, it was felt that a national emblem of Union and Independence should be chosen, and on June 14th, 1777, the Congress adopted a resolution that the Flag of the Thirteen United States should be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white, and that the Union be thirteen white stars on a blue field. John Fish, historian, says that the first American Flag with stars and stripes that was ever floated to the breeze was one hastily made out of a white skirt and an old blue jacket and some strips of red cloth from the petticoat of a soldier's wife. This flag of a new nation was raised above Fort Stanwix in August, 1777.

Congress, on April 4th, 1888, passed an Act fixing the number of stripes and the date and manner of arrangement of additional stars, which provided that from and after the 4th day of July next, the Flag of the United States shall be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the Union have twenty stars, white in a blue field; and that on the admission of every new state into the Union, one star should be added to the Union of the Flag and that such addition should take effect on the 4th day of July next succeeding such admission. At that time the character of the Flag was fixed once and for all, and since that time the number of stars in the Union has been increased to 48. The thirteen red and white stripes symbolize the 13 original states that won American Independence.

In the years that have passed since the adoption of the Stars and Stripes as the emblem of this country, the Flag has become to the American people, a symbol of Union and Liberty. It was Paul Jones, the great naval hero, who was the first to make the United States Flag a symbol of glory. He was placed in command of the Ranger on the same day the Flag was adopted by Congress. He sailed for Portsmouth, New Hampshire on the 4th day of July following to raise the Flag on his ship, and as the Naval Committee presented the banner to him, he said: "That Flag and I are twins, born the same hour. We cannot be parted in life or death. So long as we can float, we shall float together."

So it is also today. The fighting forces of our country are carrying our Flag on high to every section of the world—in battle on land and sea, and they, too, are carrying it in the same spirit that the gallant Paul Jones did—for our freedom and our liberty, and may we "Keep it Flying"—the emblem of "One nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

MERCHANTS TO SELL WAR BONDS

ON July 1st, 1942, retail merchants in every city and town throughout the United States will, at 12:00 o'clock noon, cease the sale of their merchandise for a period of fifteen minutes, and will devote this period of time to the sale of War Bonds and Stamps.

The merchants and business men of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County have agreed to aid in this great drive. This will be a part of the Treasury's effort to obtain a goal of one billion in the sale of war securities. It will bring home to every American the necessity of giving financial support to the war effort.

Instances of this type illustrate what a free people can do when they unite in the defense of their country. No pressure is to be exercised upon any merchant to sell, or upon any citizen to buy, but we feel certain that every American citizen, on July 1st, will purchase at least one War Stamp, or War Bond.

People who try to tell you what you can do, and can't do, should seek to control their own lives.

CRUSADERS

WE are considered one of the smaller counties of Mississippi. In checking the list of men from this county who have enlisted, or who have been inducted into service, we find approximately 375 names.

In reading over the files of addresses, we find some located in every section of the globe. To date reports have been received that five boys are missing in action. Four of the five were on Corregidor. These young men, ranging in age from 20 to 23 years, mere youths, the flower of manhood, are members of some of the oldest and staunchest families of Hancock County. These boys have probably paid with their lives, so that this world might be free from the rule of the despots that are governing our enemy countries.

The hearts of the parents of these gallant young men are filled with sorrow. However, with their sorrow is a mixed feeling of pride, knowing that the lives of their sons were probably sacrificed for the freedom and the liberty of their country, and for the freedom and liberty of the millions of people who are today enslaved in the countries taken over by our foes.

The Crusaders of old fought so that Christianity might exist. The fight our boys are carrying on today is no different. They are fighting to free this world of tyrants who would suppress religious teachings, whose only God is their swords, and whose sole thoughts are to emulate the conquerors of the early centuries. The boys can well be called Crusaders, for today they are fighting so that Freedom, Liberty and the right to believe in God, might live.

It is hard to become reconciled to the fact that lives of young men of our nation should be sacrificed in war; nevertheless, much comfort can be had in the thought of the purpose for which this war is being fought.

News has been reaching us of the great air raids over Germany, and of the great sea battles raging in the Pacific, in which many of our boys are probably engaged. It is our hope that this activity will not cease until we pay back to Hitler and his followers, pound for pound, the bombs that they have dropped upon defenseless women and children, and that destruction will be heaped upon their country, as they have heaped it upon others.

For Japan, it is our hope that our forces will blast every one of the yellow, slant-eyed, so and so's out of the Pacific, and that in time we will allow them to be absorbed by the Chinese.

We feel certain that if this can be accomplished, that the mothers and fathers of the boys who have given their lives, will be happy in the thought that it was not in vain.

ATTACKS ON CONGRESS

THE Times-Picayune on Tuesday, June 9th., in an editorial entitled "Congress and a Mandate," went at length to answer the comments of Speaker Sam Rayburn of the House of Representatives upon the effort now being made to destroy the faith and confidence of the American people in the elected representatives. This editorial answered his comments by stating that Congress must be judged by its actions which automatically strengthen or weaken popular confidence in it as a body; that if the Congress were not subject to public criticism and rebuke for malperformance or nonperformance, representative government might continue in name, but in effect would be destroyed; and that individual members of Congress should expect criticism and so conduct themselves that they could defend themselves against it. In this they are absolutely correct.

The Times-Picayune contends that the dissatisfaction with the present Congress stems from charged mistakes, both of commission and omission. This may be true, that Congress has failed in some instances to properly perform their duties—they may have allowed themselves in some instances to become subservient to minority groups, but all in all, we should realize that Congress is made up of human beings who are not infallible and who are as susceptible as any other human to make mistakes.

Sound criticism, does not hurt, nor should it offend the individual members of Congress. The criticism, in our opinion, that is helping to destroy the confidence of the people in our legislative branch of Government, is the "peep-hole" type of press comments, directed at members of Congress, that would charge them with lack of patriotism and the lack of performance of their duties in the carrying on of the great war in which we are involved.

The enemies of our country would like to see nothing better than the down-fall of our present Government. Do you believe that they would hesitate to stir strife and disorder, and do you believe that certain people in this country would hesitate to sow the seed of dissension, if it rebounded to their personal gain? We have people in this country who are as low down as Pierre Laval and his followers. Do you believe that these people would not do and carry out in this country exactly what he did in France? For power and certain remuneration, many men would send their souls to hell, let alone sacrifice their country and its people.

We believe that Speaker Rayburn was absolutely correct when he said, "That there has never been a dictatorship built up in any land until the faith and confidence of the people had been destroyed in the legislative branch." Again, let us admonish you that in the event you wish to offer any criticism to Congress, offer constructive criticism. If you have a bone to pick with any individual member of Congress, do that, but for God's sake stop there.

Victory Gardens may be the idea now but we might use 'em for food later on.

This is no time for pacifists in Congress; they are too dangerous to the nation's safety.

When an individual makes up his mind to go to work, he is usually surprised by the pleasant results.

You can go to the ends of the earth and find no better people than those in Bay St. Louis, make it your business to get along with them.

Our own idea is that Tokyo, despite Japanese victories, is beginning to have the same feeling that came over Mussolini when the British refused to surrender after the fall of France.

Hancock County Men in "The Service"

The Sea Coast Echo wishes to advise the parents or relatives of any of these men that it will gladly mail a copy of the paper to the boys if their address is given to the office. The newspaper will bring direct to the men away from home news of what the folks back home are doing and we hope this service will be one which they may enjoy.

The following list of names was supplied The Echo and should any service man's name be omitted it would be appreciated if it would be sent in.

For Your Safety's Sake Please Don't Telephone During Emergencies

Keep the Lines Clear for Calls Vital to Your Protection

During public emergencies such as air raid warnings, practice blackouts, fires, storms, and ship sinkings, telephone lines must be kept clear for calls vital to the community's protection.

Please don't be excited by rumors and rush to your telephone, for what may seem merely a rumor to you may develop into an emergency for the telephone company if everyone begins telephoning to ask about it. Rumors may easily be started purposely to hamper communication facilities at a time when they are most needed.

In some cities, a flood of calls during times of excitement has seriously hampered the work of police, fire and civilian defense authorities, endangering life and property.

So we ask that you please refrain from telephoning during times of excitement and stress. At such times use the telephone only in case of serious personal emergency. Your cooperation is essential for the effective handling of emergencies by the organizations assigned to those tasks.

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS

THE parents of soldiers serving on foreign soil will be interested to know that the Government is working on plans for speeding homeward-bound messages. At the present it is often weeks and sometimes even months before relatives and friends hear from these boys after they said, "This is due to the time it takes for the men to reach their destination and for mail from them to get back home. Relatives and friends are naturally anxious about the safety of these soldiers, but there is little that the War Department can tell them without revealing their destination of the expeditionary force, which of necessity is a military secret.

Letters from soldiers in England and Ireland are now being photographed on Microfilm, which is rushed by airplane to America. The letter is then printed as a photostat and is forwarded to the home folks to whom it is addressed.

Also, soldiers at some foreign stations can now send messages under a fixed-text radio and cable service, known as Expeditionary Forces Messages. A soldier may choose up to three times from a list of 102 standardized messages. The cost for the entire message, whether one, two, or three items are chosen, will be 60 cents, exclusive of Federal tax. Arrangements for such messages have been completed in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Alaska, Newfoundland, Puerto Rico, Panama, Hawaii, and posts in the Caribbean area, and negotiations are under way in Australia, New Caledonia, Egypt, India, China, and Iceland. Standardized messages to be sent from home to the soldier will also become available soon. The messages, of course, will not indicate the location of the foreign post from which they come and will necessarily be formalized, but they will at least bring news to anxious relatives.

Totally Disabled Veterans Pensions Raised

Both Houses have passed a bill increasing the pension of totally disabled veterans from $30.00 to $40.00 per month. As originally passed by the House, the bill would also have granted the pension to all veterans at 65, but this provision was eliminated by the Senate.

The House has passed legislation authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to provide Federal meat inspection during the present war emergency for meat-packing establishments engaged in intra-state commerce. At present this inspection service is available only to the larger packers who have an interstate business, and as a result local slaughter houses and small meat packers have been excluded from bidding on Government contracts to supply Army Camps.

"THE FLEET'S IN," WITH STARS, GAGS AND TUNES, AT A. & G.

Lamour, Holden, Bracken Star in Coming Comedy

One of the brightest new film prospects due to hit the local screen Sunday and Monday is "The Fleet's In," the Paramount laugh musical opening at the A. & G. Theater, starring her some-time-sarong-wearing Majesty, Dorothy Lamour, William Holden and Eddie Bracken, and featuring a long list of ace entertainers aided by the grand music of Jimmy Dorsey and his orchestra.

With nine new hit tunes to give it rhythmic spice, "The Fleet's In," is the hilarious story of a beautiful ballroom entertainer known as "The Countess," who is the nemesis of every sailor who tries to kiss her.

Throughout the story, topnotch entertainers do their stuff, with Jimmy Dorsey, the King of the Saxophone, and his orchestra, providing the musical incentive. Among those who crowd the list are Betty Hutton, America's Number One Jitterbug; Betty June Rhodes, singer with an unusual style; Left Erickson, popular screen player; Bob Eberly and Helen O'Connell, featured vocalists with the Dorsey orchestra; Cass Daley, eccentric singer of novelty songs; Gil Lamb, luscious with a harmonica, and Lorraine and Rognan, comedy dance team who are well known in the swankier night clubs and theaters from coast to coast. Dominating the whole list, of course, the ever-welcome Dorothy Lamour. Incidentally, advance information is that Dotty doesn't wear a sarong in "The Fleet's In," but the canny movie-makers do put her in a revealing bathing suit. "The Fleet's In" was directed by that virtuoso of musical films, the late Victor Schertzinger.

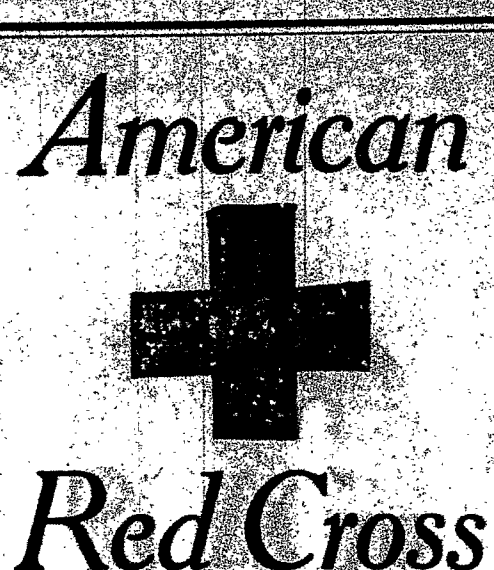

Among the hit tunes, all already well known, introduced in "The Fleet's In," are "Tangerine," "I Remember You," "When You Hear the Time Signal," "Arthur Murray Taught Me Dancing in a Hurry," "When You Build a Better Mousetrap," "Not Mine" and "The Fleet's In."

Having all the elements mentioned, stars, story, variety acts and several top tunes, "The Fleet's In" seems to be the answer to the demand for first-line screen entertainment.

AN old clothes party will be given a week from Saturday, June 20th at the new Red Cross Production Room on Main street under the auspices of the Home Service Committee. A bundle of old clothes will be the price of admission. The public is invited to attend.

The Logtown group of workers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lamar Otis has started work on fifty children's bed jackets. A shipment of material for girls' shirts, boys' overalls, boys' flannel shirts, and bed jackets have been received. Will you not come help put this quota out? Any woman with time to spare is urged to come help with this work.

All those who have completed the Standard course in First Aid and who are interested in taking the ten hour course of Advanced First Aid are requested to get in touch with the local office or with Roger Heitzman, Red Cross First Aid chairman. In order to form a First Aid Unit to work with emergency medical services of defense council it is necessary to have advanced First Aid before forming a unit.

The following poem taken from the Red Cross "Volunteer" pamphlet will be amusing, no doubt, to those having mastered the mysteries of First Aid.

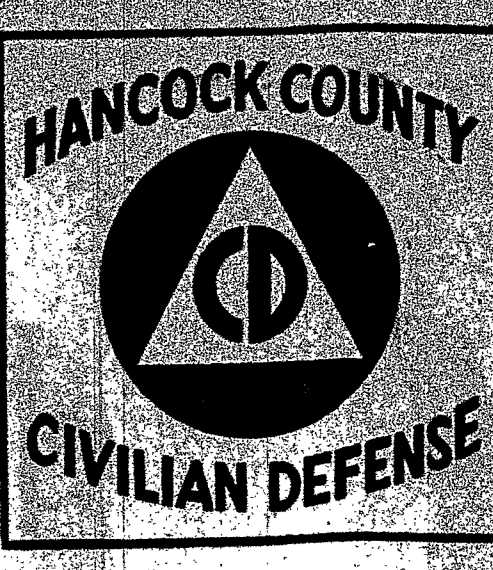

Attention First Aiders
By Amy Grief
Lady, if you see me lying
On the ground and (maybe) dying,
Let my gore run, bright and free;
Don't attempt to bandage me!
While, there's life, there's hope, so pet,

Don't apply a tourniquet;
Do not give for my salvation,
"Artificial respiration."
Do not stretch my bones or joints
Do not press my "pressure points!"
If "queer symptoms" you should see
Don't experiment on me!
If I'm suffering from "shock,"
Take a walk around the block!
If you must be busy, pray
Help to "keep the crowds away!"
So, whatever my condition,
Phone at once for a physician!
Let me lie; I'll take a chance
Waiting for the ambulance!
From "First Aid" I beg release—
Lady, let me die in peace.

MASS MEETING

Be sure and hear Major H. S. McCallum, United States Army representative of Mississippi Civilian Defense council at the Court House Monday night, June 15th at 8 o'clock.

His talk will be on the General Program of Civilian Defense and the necessity of it and also on Fire Defense.

Drivers' Group

Mr. Bryan Graham will meet the class training for the Drivers Group on Friday night at 8 o'clock in Civilian Defense office.

Salvage

The W. P. A. Salvage project has collected about 7 tons of iron and rubber. This is being collected and sorted on the R. R. spur behind McDonald's old warehouse near the L. & N. station. Anyone having small quantities of these materials say 50 pounds or less may deliver direct to the collection point. It will save the truck a trip and will be greatly appreciated by the committee. Please bring all the rubber you can.

The city trucks are helping collect paper and the Boy Scouts will soon have a car load for shipment.

Do not save paper that has been used to wrap meat, cheese or similar food. It attracts rats and roaches and they eat up the paper.

Don't forget the Girl Scouts want all the cancelled postage stamps they can get.

Sub-Centers Active

Kiln reports a total enrollment of 360—which is remarkable for a community of its size.

A First Aid Class with Mrs. J. Townsend Wolfe as instructor will complete their 20 hour Standard Course this week. Another group under "Utility Repair" is training at the Defense School in Gulfport. A First Aid Class has been organized at Logtown with Miss Pauline Russ as instructor. This class meets on Monday-Tuesday and Friday nights and has an enrollment of about 25.

SENSATIONAL CAST ENACTS REX BEACH'S "THE SPOILERS"

Heralded as one of the most memorable pictures of screen history and based on the best of Rex Beach's best-seller books, "The Spoilers" comes to the Ortte Theater, Sunday and Monday.

The raw, teeming saga of the Klondike co-stars Marlene Dietrich, Randolph Scott and John Wayne. Produced for Universal by Frank Lloyd, maker of such screen smashes as "Munty on the Bounty" and the contemporary "Saboteur," the film backs its three-way constellation with a pretentious supporting cast. Among the featured players are Margaret Lindsey, who will have the opposite feminine lead; Harry Carey, top-liner of more than 300 pictures; Richard Barthelmess, in a comeback character lead, and William Farnum, star of the original "Spoilers."

In addition, Robert W. Service, poet laureate of the Alaskan gold rush and writer of "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," appears on the screen for the first time, playing himself in a brief sequence.

The keynote of the new "Spoilers" is the famous quotation from Kipling, "There's never a law of man or God holds North of '52." Ray Enright, veteran of the megaphone, was the director, with special credit to B. Reeves "Breezy" Eason for the spectacular fight scenes. Lee Marcus was Lloyd's associate producer and Milton Krasner was on the cameras. Lawrence Hazard and Tom Reed wrote the screen play. It is a Charles K. Feldman Group Production.

AN APPEAL TO MEN TO USE MORE CARE

In Filling Out Occupational Questionnaires

An urgent appeal to men in this area to aid the war effort by using more care in filling out their occupational questionnaires was issued today by W. G. Gorenflo, Manager of the Gulfport office of the United States Employment Service.

"Effective mobilization of our manpower for wartime industry and agriculture must be completed if we are to win this war," Mr. Gorenflo declared. "For this purpose it is essential that the occupational inventory be completed speedily and accurately. This occupational inventory is a vital part of the Nation's war program, and it is of the greatest importance that registrants fill out their questionnaires clearly, fully, and accurately."

Manager Gorenflo urged all registrants who have any difficulty in filling out the questionnaire to go to Questionnaires have been or are being sent to all men who registered with the Selective Service System, so that eventually the government will have a complete inventory of all its manpower between the ages of 18 and 65. Specifically, the data collected will be used for three principal purposes—first, to avoid the induction into the armed forces of men who are more urgently needed in war production; second, to replace workers now deferred from military service on occupational grounds whenever possible with vocational trainees or other qualified persons who because of age, sex, or other reasons are not suitable for military service; third, to speed up war production by promoting the transfer of workers from non-essential to essential work.

JUNE NATIONAL DAIRY MONTH

It was felt that by Mississippi's participation in the 1941 National Dairy Month Program, which was done to bring to the attention of the people the importance of milk and milk products in the dieting habits of our people if they are to be strong vigorous citizens. Also in showing the growth of the dairy industry in the state. The economic value being second only to King Cotton. Therefore Gov. Johnson declares June National Dairy Month and urges the citizens to use more Dairy Products during the month of June which is unusually our month of highest production.

The farmer can help present inflation by producing more food and feed, but will have to do it with less labor, less machinery, and less fertilizer. Machinery is going to be harder and harder to get, and the farmer should order new parts now, and if there is any junk lying around Uncle Sam can use it right now, get in touch with Mr. Roland Weston, Chairman of County Salvage Committee.)

Inflation is a period of cheap money, when there is plenty of money and nothing to buy with it, and by farmers producing more and more food and fiber he can help prevent inflation. Farmers are advised by the Economists not to go in debt to increase their operations at this time but to pay off their debts and be ready for the depression when and if it comes.

MISSISSIPPI NEEDS

JIM EASTLAND

IN THE UNITED STATES

SENATE

"In these perilous times our people not only need but they are demanding leadership. They want action instead of political maneuvering and dilly-dallying in our senate."—JIM EASTLAND.

This challenging statement by Jim Eastland is typical of his beliefs and shows the reason WHY Mississippi needs him in the United States Senate. Appointed for three months, JIM began FIGHTING FOR the SOUTH three weeks after he arrived in Washington. He didn't sit back on out-of-date political precedent—he immediately became the "Champion of the Farmer and of the South."

SEND JIM BACK to finish the job—he went to work—he got results!

The three questions answered most last week are:

1. How much sugar do I get?
Ans. You will get 1 lb., of sugar for every 4 qts. of finished canned fruit you are putting up. The amount of determined by your family needs. You will also be allowed 1 lb., per person per annum for preserving, jellies, jams and fruit butter.
2. I usually use more sugar than that how do I make it do?
Ans. According to standards for canned goods this is enough but some suggestions are:
Add a small amount of sugar to the fruits own juices instead of making the usual sirup. Fruits naturally contain a great deal of water and you can make best use of your sugar by sweetening this rather than by adding more water in the form of sirup.

Heat the slightly sweetened fruit carefully in a sauce pan. This draws out the juices, shrinks the fruit, and drives out the air, making it possible to pack generous amounts of fruit in each jar. There should be enough juice to cover the fruit completely. Fruit juices are not provided for in the sugar-rationing allowances, but they may be bottled or put in jars with little or no sugar. When sweet and tart juices are mixed together, no sugar is needed. Fruit for juice is processed at simmering rather than boiling temperatures to keep the material fruit flavors.

When a Child Needs a Laxative!

SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT is a tasty liquid that most children will welcome whenever they need a laxative. What's more important, it has the same main ingredient as BLACK-DRAUGHT, its older companion. Perhaps that's why it usually gives a child such refreshing relief from the familiar symptoms which show a laxative is needed. Comes in two sizes: 25c—50c.
